PORTFOLIO TIPS:

It is never to early to start thinking about working on your portfolio.

With the new year now is a good time to write down your goals for all of the projects you will be doing.

Remember once a month to add any of the activities you have been doing such as helping with a 4-H production or participating in the school band. All of these things have a place in your portfolio.

For type and save portfolio please visit: http://www.uwyo.edu/4-h/portfolio/index.html

For instructions on how to use the type and save portfolio:

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=xHZIZ0johnk&feature=youtu.be

Why Use Portfolios?

- 4-H portfolios provide an index of a member's achievements in 4-H activities. When carefully completed, they provide a history of the member's learning experiences, both successes and failures.
- The task of completing a 4-H project, including the chore of keeping records, helps a 4-H'er learn to accept responsibility for seeing a project through to its completion.
- A well-kept 4-H portfolio is inherently a record of self-improvement. Portfolios give young people a measurement of progress toward both long–term and short-term goals.
- Completing a 4-H portfolio gives young people "hands-on" experiences in developing an important "survival" stem of modern life—a resumé.
- The 4-H portfolio is a means of recording achievements. 4-H award programs at the district level rely heavily on the picture the 4-H'er presents of himself or herself through the 4-H portfolio.

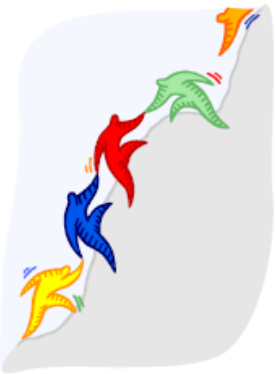
Character Counts

Caring



"I feel the capacity to care is the thing which gives life its deepest significance."

- Pablo Casals

Caring is:

Compassion: Show concern for others, help others in need. Don't look the other way when someone needs help.

Charity: Give time, money and support, be generous. Don't give only for praise or awards.

Kindness: use positive words, act in a caring way. Don't be mean, selfish or cruel.

Empathy: put yourself in others' shoes. Don't make fun of others.

For all of the Character Counts news letter inserts please visit www.4-h.uwyo.edu

Caring in 4-H:

There are many easy ways to show others you care;

- give someone a compliment
- spread smiles to other people
- write a note to someone thanking them for something
- keep a promise that you made
- show you care for the environment by recycling
- do something special for your 4-H club
- do a good deed without being asked

Are you a caring person?

Take this self-evaluation and decide for yourself.

T	F
____	____	I am never mean, cruel, or insensitive.
____	____	I treat people with kindness and generosity.
____	____	I am charitable.
____	____	I give of myself for the benefit of others.
____	____	I am responsive to the concerns and needs of others.

I conclude that I am / am not a caring person because _____

I would like to introduce a weekly member spotlight. In order to do so, I would appreciate nominations. If you would like to see a member in a Monday Message, send me an email with their name, and why you think they should be nominated.
