

Oct 7, 2019 4-H Council Meeting

Meeting was called to order at 5:34 p.m. Members present were Erin Wright, Stephanie Voss, Amber Amarjo, Tamara Drake, Beth Shaffer, Olivia Shaffer, Cindi Lentsch and Zane Lentsch.

Minutes were read and motion was made by Tamara Drake to approve as read, seconded by Beth Shaffer

No treasure report due to Janet being gone due to illness.

Club Reports:

Renegades-Butter braid sales going on until Oct 23rd. Working on Club books

South Flat-Elected new officers

Roadrunners-setting up time to work at the humane society and 4-H baby of the week gift.

No Project reports

Old Business:

4-H week pancake breakfast was well attended according to Amber and Cindi.

Approximately 250 plates were served

Planning meeting coming up for Cloverbuds. Two new parents are wanting to participate!

Postcards were placed on Sally's pizza boxes over the 4-H week and Table tents were placed at Stogie Joe's

Washakie County Live with Lisa Beamer interviewed a few 4-H members and leaders. Adds were placed on the radio and Facebook posts were made as well as participation in the 4-H parade

Record books are in and they are mostly judges, Amber has a handful that need judged a second time. She has had new people judge this year which is always a plus. 2019-2020 record books will be changing and Amber will keep everyone updated as she is aware of changes.

Club awards are due to the state by November 1st

Achievement night is set for November 14, 2019. Each club assignments were given. Cowbells will cook and awards are pretty much taken care of from last year's restructure. A few of the personalized ones will need to be ordered.

New Business:

Officer Elections were tabled till next meeting by Jessica.

Meeting was adjourned at 6:01 pm

Respectfully submitted by
Erin Wright