Amy moved to approve the May Report and Erin seconded. Motion carried

Correspondence:

There was no correspondence

Reports:

Clubs:

Renegades – Had a club meeting via zoom. Planned Highway Cleanup

Roadrunners – Had a club meeting via zoom. 5 families attended. It was hard due to bad connections. Planning to send cards to the nursing home and donations to the food bank. There were a lot of questions about fair.

Ten Sleep – Leaders reached out individually to members and answered concerns about fair

South Flat – No Meeting

Clover Buds – Meetings were combined with the afterschool program via zooms. They are planning a day camp.

Projects:

Shooting Sports – Had their first meeting tonight June 1st

Horse – Meetings will begin Tuesday June 2nd

Alpaca – Had their first meeting Friday May 29th

Fairboard:

Amber Reported that the Fairboard is continuing to plan for the Fair. They have discussed having more hand washing stations and posting signs reminding everyone of social distancing.

There have been requests sent for food concessions. We have not received a letter to rent the Food Booth.

They plan to space the picnic tables out in the eating area

They have to have a plan approved through County Health which they are working on.

Cody is planning to have ½ day shows with livestock going home at the end of the shows and coming back for the sale. This is an option for us as well.

There has been discussion of having an online sale to avoid gathering of people inside the sale barn.

They will ask that families try to stay spaced 5 feet apart.

Old Business:

University of Wyoming and Extension have lifted some COVID 19 Restrictions and Face to Face meetings are now being allowed. A best practice flyer will be handed out to all leaders and members reminding them of social distancing and using hand sanitizer. It is best if meetings can be done outside. Public health only needs notified if there will be over 250 people for an outside event and more than 25 for an inside event.

4H Record books and enrollment are now all on Z Suites. The old system will no longer exist

Fair Food booth was discussed. Amy will check with Paint Rock Processing about purchasing beef and order buns and other items from Blairs.

New Business:

There will be a portable scale available to check out from the Extension Office.

There is a lot happening in June so watch your calendars and email

Tagging will be June 23rd in Worland and June 24th in Ten Sleep. Best practices will be used. Families will be asked to stay in their vehicles until it is their turn.

4H Day Camp will be June 27th in Johnson County.

Livestock quality Assurance is due June 30th

Next meeting will be July 6, 2020 at 5:30pm

Meeting was adjourned at 6:24.
