Horse – Their will be a Horse Judging Camp during February
Goat Judging will be on February 2nd via zoom
Wildlife and Hunting – Matt and Cindy Lentsch held meetings in Ten Sleep and Worland. They had a good turnout, 8 in Ten Sleep and 30-35 in Worland. It went well and the kids seems enthusiastic. They are looking to do more.

Fairboard:

No January Meeting

Old Business:

No Old Business to discuss

New Business:

4H Curriculum – There are books available for each project with good ideas for project meetings.
Amber feels like we are lacking leaders in the livestock projects. Jessica said Ten Sleep tries to do a couple trial shows for their livestock kids before fair. If you need ideas to help your kids or club members have them contact the extension office for more information.

Ice Skating party – Amber would like to put together an ice skating party towards the end of February. Just to have a fun day with all the kids. The pond in Hyattville has free skates. Erin said Basin turns the rodeo grounds into a skating rink as well. Amber will let everyone know a day and time once it's planned.

Scholarship Committee – There was some discussion and ideas of people discussed but will be tabled until next month

Career Day will be March 23rd. Amber has a lot of different and varied people lined up to give more of a variety of career options to choose from including a zookeeper, kayaking guide, graphic designer, animal science, nutritionist, arborist and a few colleges
