Minutes: Cindy moved to approve minutes as read and Janet seconded

Treasurer Report: Janet reported income and expenses for the period of 4/27/2022 to 5/31/2022. Account balance is $23,000.79

There is a request of funds from the Truman family for 4H Camp. Janet moved to approve the request of $113 and Cindy seconded.

Correspondence: We received a Thank you note from Luke Voss for his scholarship award. He requested to hold the money until he is ready to go school. Janet moved to hold scholarship for one year until the Fall of 2023 and Cindy seconded the motion.

Club Reports:

Roadrunners, Cindy reported that the club made posters for the Veterans and plan to do some weed control around town for the month of June.

Renegades, Amy reported that the club did Highway clean up

Cloverbuds, Amber reported that they went to the library in May and will be making bird houses to donate for the month of June.

Projects: Livestock tagging went well. Shooting sports, Dogs and Cake decorating are doing regular meetings. Horse meetings will start this week.

Fairboard: A final decision on the poultry show will be made at the next meeting. There is a contagious bird flu.

Old Business: Dani Warner is the new 4H intern for the summer and has been a huge help.

4H Scholarships were given to Felix Lentsch and Luke Voss

Fair Food Booth, Amy reported that Mike and Carrie Warner are donating a half a beef again this year. Janet will order the drinks for the booth. Amy would like to meet with leaders in July to get volunteers from each club to help manage the schedule each day. Landon is working on the online schedule to use again this year. We will have a larger overlap on shifts. Jessica Tharp volunteered to make breakfast burritos for the mornings of the shows. We will also do donuts and coffee those mornings.

New Business: Show case showdown is June 21-23. Amy moved to give each kid $50 and Janet seconded.

Culture Fest is June 18th. Due to busy schedules it was decided to not participate this year.

Amber shared upcoming events and noted that all the events are on the website as well.

The next meeting will be July 5th at 5:30pm

Meeting was adjourned at 6:26 by Cindy and Janet seconded.
