

April 6, 2026 Washakie County 4-H Council Minutes

In attendance: Emily Johnston, Jessica Tharp, Cindy Lentsch, Amber Armajo, Tera Neufer, Michelle Hamilton, Tara Jorgensen

The meeting was called to order at 5:04 p.m.

Secretary's Report: No formal meeting last month

Treasurer's Report: After Tera read the report, Michel move, Emily seconded to approve the bills. The motion passed. the group discussed the $10,000 the council sent in to get matching funds from the state. The group was in favor of moving another $5,000 to the foundation account with $25,656 in the liability account. Jessica moved, Michelle seconded to approve the move. The motion passed.

Correspondence: Thank you card form Hannah Davis

Reports:

- Renegades volunteered at the nursing home last month.
- Roadrunners collected donations to Sleep in Heavenly Peace and collected more than $300 for Laundry of Love. Cindy Lentsch announced she will be stepping down after June as a club leader. Jessica and Katherine Davis will co-lead the club for the next year.
- Colverbuds have been participating in archery and leather crafts.
- South Flat donated to the Angel Tree for the Festival of Trees.

Amber announced the seniors will be able to wear cords they earned that will be handed out at scholarship night.

Old Business:

- Amber said the Egg Your Yard project went well and distributed 1,300 eggs.
- The office is looking for a summer intern for 20 hours per week.
- The courage to Explore trip to Denver went well (Amber). They took 12 kids.
- Officer Elections: It was moved by Cindy and seconded by Emily to elect Jessica Tharp as president. It was moved by Cindy, seconded by Jess to elect Michelle Hamilton as vice president. It was moved by Jess, seconded by Cindy to elect Tara Jorgensen as secretary. It was moved by Jess, seconded by Cindy to retain Tera Neufer as treasurer. It was moved by Jess, seconded by Emily to elect Cindy Lentsch as an officer at large. It was moved by Cindy, seconded by Jess to elect Emily as an officer at large. All motions carried.

Amber's Time: Amber reminded everyone that it's a flex year for quality assurance and that there's a swine nutrition zoom that will count on April 14. The virtual career night will also be held April 19 via Zoom. A sheep/goat nutrition presentation will be available on Zoom April 29.

The group also discussed horse practices starting and the new parents stepping up to help make it happen. Jessica informed the group it would be her last summer as the Horse Superintendent.

The council also discussed that there isn't a need to hold a meeting every month and agreed to go to a schedule of every-other-month unless a special meeting is needed. The next meeting will be held June 1 at 5 p.m. Meetings will be scheduled for August, October, January 2027, and March 2027 to follow.

The meeting adjourned at 6:25 p.m.